

JACKRABBIT RIDGE – THE PERCHES

Spring, Summer and Fall*

Jackrabbit Ridge is a private hilltop hideaway situated just above the ranch and provides an ideal setting for a glorious Sierra sunset experience.

We'll escort you on an adventurous little ride from the lodge up to the ridge where you can settle into one of our exclusive perches that are perfectly set for a picture perfect evening. In addition to a comfy seating arrangement, you'll enjoy a charcuterie cupboard stocked with artisan cheeses, cured meats, seasonal accompaniments, and house-made delicacies.

Four alcoves accommodate up to two guests, while our signature perch, The Overlook, seats up to four guests. Available by reservation from spring through fall, your perch is reserved exclusively for your party.

After sunset, you have the option to add on a stargazing experience for an additional fee.
